

Audit, Finance and Risk Committee

No. 2

Role and Objective

The Audit, Finance and Risk Committee (the "Committee") is a committee of the board of directors (the "Board") of Freehold Royalties Ltd. ("Freehold") to which the Board has delegated certain responsibilities for oversight of the nature and scope of the annual audit, management's reporting on internal accounting standards and practices, financial information and accounting systems and procedures, financial reporting and statements and recommending, for Board approval, the audited financial statements and other mandatory disclosure releases containing financial information.

The objectives of the Committee are as follows:

1. To assist directors in meeting their responsibilities, especially for accountability, in respect of the preparation and disclosure of the financial statements of Freehold and related matters;
2. To provide better communication between directors and the external auditors;
3. To enhance the external auditors' independence;
4. To increase the transparency, credibility and objectivity of financial reporting;
5. To strengthen the role of the independent directors by facilitating in-depth discussions between directors on the Committee, management and the external auditors;
6. To promote Freehold's strong financial health; and
7. To assist the Board with identification and management of risk.

Membership of Committee

1. The Committee will be comprised of at least three directors, all of whom are independent (as such term is used in National Instrument 52-110 – Audit Committees ("NI 52-110")).
2. At least one member of the Committee shall be a financial expert. Someone shall be considered a financial expert if they are or were a chief financial officer, chartered accountant, certified management accountant, fellow chartered accountant (FCA), fellow certified practicing accountant (FCPA), or partner of an accounting firm, or someone with an equivalent skillset in the determination of the Board.
3. The Board will have the power to appoint the Committee Chair.
4. All of the members of the Committee will be financially literate. The Board has adopted the definition for financial literacy used in NI 52-110.

Meetings

1. At all meetings of the Committee, every question will be decided by a majority of the votes cast. In case of an equality of votes, the Committee Chair is not entitled to a second or deciding vote.
2. A quorum for meetings of the Committee will be a majority of its members, and the rules for calling, holding, conducting and adjourning meetings of the Committee will be the same as those governing the Board.

3. Meetings of the Committee should be scheduled to take place at least four times per year. Minutes of all meetings of the Committee will be taken. The Chief Financial Officer will attend meetings of the Committee, unless otherwise excused from all or part of any such meeting(s) by the Committee Chair.
4. The Committee will forthwith report the results of meetings and reviews undertaken and any associated recommendations to the Board.
5. The Committee will meet in-camera with the external auditors at least quarterly (in connection with the preparation of the annual and quarterly financial statements) and at such other times as the external auditors and the Committee consider appropriate.
6. The Committee will hold an in-camera session, without members of management or management directors, at each meeting. The Committee may invite other directors, members of management, and advisors to attend all or part of any in-camera session, as it deems advisable.

Mandate and Responsibilities

The mandate and responsibilities of the Committee will be as set forth below:

1. Oversee the work of the external auditors, including resolution of disagreements between management and the external auditors regarding financial reporting.
2. Satisfy itself on behalf of the Board with respect to Freehold's internal control systems, which include:
 - a. identifying, monitoring and mitigating business risks; and
 - b. ensuring compliance with legal, ethical and regulatory requirements.
3. Review key financial matters, including but not limited to those pertaining to foreign currency, interest rates, capital markets, debt and tax.
4. Review the annual and quarterly financial statements of Freehold prior to their submission to the Board for approval. The process should include but not be limited to:
 - a. reviewing changes in accounting principles, or in their application, which may have a material impact on the current or future years' financial statements;
 - b. reviewing significant accruals, reserves or other estimates such as impairment testing;
 - c. reviewing accounting treatment of unusual or non-recurring transactions;
 - d. ascertaining compliance with covenants under loan agreements;
 - e. reviewing adequacy of reclamation provisions;
 - f. reviewing disclosure requirements for commitments and contingencies;

- g. reviewing adjustments raised by the external auditors, whether or not included in the financial statements;
 - h. reviewing unresolved differences between management and the external auditors; and
 - i. obtaining explanations of significant variances with comparative reporting periods.
 5. Review the financial statements, prospectuses, management's discussion and analysis, annual information forms, earnings news releases, and all public disclosure containing audited or unaudited financial information before release and prior to Board approval. The Committee must be satisfied that adequate procedures are in place for the review of Freehold's disclosure of all other financial information and will periodically assess the accuracy of those procedures.
 6. Recommend to the Board the annual appointment of external auditors, and in so doing:
 - a. annually review the performance and independence of the external auditors;
 - b. review the terms of engagement of the auditor, including the compensation of the auditors;
 - c. confirm that the auditors will report directly to the Committee;
 - d. when there is to be a change in auditors, review the issues related to the change and the information to be included in the required notice to securities regulators of such change; and
 - e. review and approve any non-audit services to be provided by the auditors' firm and consider the impact on the independence of the auditors.
 7. Review with external auditors, and the internal auditor if one is appointed by Freehold, their assessment of the internal controls of Freehold, their written reports containing recommendations for improvement, and management's response and follow-up to any identified weaknesses. The Committee will also review annually with the external auditors their audit plan and, upon completion of the audit, their reports upon the financial statements of Freehold and its subsidiaries.
 8. Pre-approve all non-audit services to be provided to Freehold or its subsidiaries by the external auditors. The Committee may delegate to one or more members the authority to pre-approve non-audit services, provided that the member report to the Committee at the next scheduled meeting such pre-approval and the member comply with such other procedures as may be established by the Committee from time to time.
 9. Review, on a quarterly basis, the risk management policies and procedures of Freehold, including with respect to hedging, litigation, cyber security and insurance, including D&O insurance.
 10. Review and approve management's hiring policies regarding current and former partners and employees of the present and former external auditor.

Audit, Finance and Risk CommitteeNo. 2

11. Establish procedures for:
 - a. the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by Freehold regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters; and
 - b. the confidential, anonymous submission by Freehold employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
12. To review and report to the Board on the procedures in place for reporting and certification under the Extractive Sector Transparency Measures Act (Canada) (ESTMA).
13. The Committee will have the authority to investigate any financial activity of Freehold. All Freehold employees are to cooperate as requested by the Committee.
14. The Committee may retain persons having special expertise and/or obtain independent professional advice to assist in fulfilling their responsibilities at the expense of Freehold without any further approval of the Board.
